SPEAKER:
 EVANGELIST GARY BILL

Bill was raised in a non-Christian home. His brother got saved and then encouraged 20-year-old Gary to come to a revival meeting where he heard for the first time a clear presentation of the life changing gospel of Jesus Christ. He responded, believing God's gospel and receiving God's Son Jesus Christ into his heart and life.

He completed a BS degree in Agriculture at the University of Georgia where he met and married his wife, Claudia. After working for the USDA for three years, God called him to preach. He then attended Bob Jones University for training and graduated with a MA in Pastoral Studies in 1982. The Bills have two children who are who are both married and in full time Christian Service. Pastor Bill has pastored two churches and served as an itinerant evangelist. In June of 2015, he re-entered full time itinerant evangelism. His burden is to preach the gospel to lost sinners and challenge believers in personal discipleship.
