SPECIAL SPEAKER:
PASTOR KENT HOBI

Pastor Kent Hobi grew up in Mentor and received his BS in Education in 1992. After teaching for five years, the Lord led him to pursue a seminary education. He received his Master of Divinity in 2001. While attending seminary, Kent spent his summers working as Peniel Bible Camp's first Program Director.

Pastor Hobi directly oversees the Men and Women's Ministries, Children's Ministries and Military Ministries at Grace Church of Mentor.

As a child, God's Word confronted him with the fact that his greatest need was to deal with his sin problem. When he was nine years old, he told God he was a sinner and received Jesus as Savior and Master of hie life. He knew very clearly that his sin was his greatest problem resulting in his greatest need—Christ.

Kent and his wife Gloria have three sons: Luke, Nathan and Seth.
