SPEAKER: DR Steve Hankins

Steve Hankins completed his B.A. in Bible and Public Speaking in 1975, an M.A. in Bible in 1977, and a PhD in New Testament Interpretation in 1993 from Bob Jones University. He has been teaching Bible and ministerial training courses at the University since 1975. He has also authored several books.

In 2000, Dr. Hankins was appointed as the Dean and Professor of New Testament Interpretation and Preaching in the Seminary and Graduate School of Religion at BJU. He oversees the faculty, students, academic programs, events, and publishing ministry of the Seminary. He has also served in the pastorate at several churches in the area. He helped found Frontline Missions International and for 21 years traveled to promote this work.

Steve is married to Sandy, his wife of 37 years and love of his life. He has 4 adult children who are all followers of Christ and the joy of his life. He is "Papa" to 10 grandchildren. He plans to live and serve Christ until he is 100. Then, he plans to go to Heaven—and serve Christ forever.
